Waikanae Beach 5026,

Dear sir.

On behalf of the Department of Labour, I would like to thank you for the outstanding course you provided yesterday, to 50 of New Zealand's most senior private sector Health & Safety Managers.

The 4 hour course was outstanding in every facet, with participants finding your session one of the most valuable courses of training they had ever received.

As you know, your training was a precursor to some other activities we have in mind for this group – and I am sure that the learning undertaken on both communications and personality will place every participant in an excellent position to achieve what we have in mind.

I have to say, that your presentation and style were quite inspirational and numerous attendees indicated that not only would they be looking for opportunities to use this in their businesses, but wished they had met you and attended one of your seminars some years ago.

On a very personal note, thank you for putting this together for us. While I have attended your excellent three day course, I felt you were able to bring out much of the learning in a much shorter period of time – but clearly in not so much depth! You are a fantastic presenter and your programme is a life changing event!

Yours sincerely,
